MORE VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED FROM MIS-SOURL-Lieut. Hagner, of the U.S. Army, arrived in St. Louis on the 28th ult., direct the purpose of ordering Col. Baker's Regiment of Illinois Volunteers to join Gen. Kearney's command; but, in the event of Cel. Baker's Regiment having left for the South, he was then to deliver a requisition on Gov. Edwards, of Missouri, for one Regiment of Infantry to take the same direction. Lieut. Hagner left for Jefferson City on the evening of his arrival in St. Louis. As great despatch will have to be used in raising and ganizing this Regiment, it was supposed that the return mail would bring the Govnor's orders on this subject.
